

Dear FCC,

I am writing to express my urgent concern regarding Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry 'documentary' days before the election. This a clear, urgent example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead of serving the public interest, we now see a media giant forcing their political agenda upon their viewers under the guise of 'news'.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.

Thank you for acting in the PUBLIC's interest.
